

BIOGRAPHIES

Martha Campbell
Head Librarian
Colorado Supreme Court Library

Martha Campbell has been working at the Colorado Supreme Court Library since graduating from the University of Colorado, starting as a Library Assistant and currently as Head Librarian. She received a Master of Library Science from the University of Denver in 1985 after several years working in the library. She has served as an officer on several Colorado Association of Law Libraries boards and is currently CoALL President. Teaching legal research is one of her favorite aspects of being a law librarian, and instructing someone on how to go about obtaining legislative histories is almost a weekly event.

Joanne Dugan
Reference Librarian
Holme Roberts & Owen LLP

Joanne Dugan has been a law librarian for 11 years, working in academic, court, and law firm libraries. She is currently a reference librarian at Holme Roberts & Owen LLP. She has a Master's degree in Library Science from the University of Washington, and a J.D. from the University of Maine. In addition to her law library career, Joanne has recently completed a visiting professorship in Legal Writing and Appellate Advocacy at the University of Colorado School of Law.

Matthew Elisha
Reference Librarian
Holme Roberts & Owen LLP

After working for the past 13 years in a variety of libraries from public to school to university and finally law, Matthew Elisha is currently a reference librarian at Holme Roberts & Owen LLP. He was, previously, a library assistant and then, after receiving his Master of Library and Information Science degree from the University of Washington, a reference librarian for Stoel Rives LLP in Seattle, WA. He received his BA in English Literature from Colorado State University. Matthew is a member of the American Association of Law Libraries and is Member-at-Large in their local chapter, the Colorado Association of Law Libraries. He enjoys teaching both legal and general research skills.

Linda Fields
Law Librarian
Arnold and Porter LLP

Linda Fields is the Law Librarian at the Denver office of Arnold & Porter LLP. Linda has a BA degree in history from the University of Colorado and received a Master's degree in Librarianship and Information Management from the University of Denver in 1982. Linda has served as president of the Colorado Association of Law Libraries and held other offices in the association. She is a member of the American Association of Law Libraries, Special Libraries Association and the Southwestern Association of Law Libraries.

Sheila Green
Reference Librarian
University of Denver College of Law
Westminster Law Library

Sheila Green is a reference librarian at Westminster Law Library where she works on research projects with students, faculty, and community patrons. She also teaches upper class seminars in federal taxation, bankruptcy, securities, legal resources on the Internet, and Internet search engines. Ms. Green received a B.A. degree in History and an M.A. in Library, Media, and Information Studies from the University of South Florida. She also earned a Master's degree in Applied Communications from the University of Denver. Ms. Green is a member of American Association of Law Libraries, Special Libraries Association, and served previously as treasurer, secretary, and membership committee chair for Colorado Association of Law Libraries.

Holly Kulikowski
Director of Library Services
Holland & Hart LLP

Holly Kulikowski is Director of Library Services at Holland & Hart LLP. She oversees all 11 of Holland & Hart's office libraries. Originally from the metropolitan Detroit area, Holly relocated to Colorado 6 years ago. She received her Master's degree in Library Science from Indiana University in 1995. A member of both the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) and the Special Libraries Association, Holly was the 2002-2003 President of the Colorado Association of Law Libraries, the local state chapter of AALL. Holly is very committed to the library community and enjoys using her skills to help others.

Monica Martens
Assistant Law Librarian
National Indian Law Library at the Native American Rights Fund

At the National Indian Law Library, Monica Martens provides reference services to attorneys of the Native American Rights Fund and to the public. Reference questions typically relate to finding federal, state, or tribal laws related to a particular topic, providing legislative history research assistance, finding elusive documents, and assisting people to develop research strategies. A graduate of the University of Florida with a B.S. in Journalism and Communications, she also holds an M.A. in Sociology from Colorado State University and an M.S. in Library and Information Science from the University of Illinois. Monica is a member of the Colorado Association of Law Libraries, the Southwestern Association of Law Libraries, the American Association of Law Libraries, and the American Society for Information Science and Technology.

Mariann Storck
Legal Information Specialist
U.S. Attorneys Office, Denver

For the past four years, Mariann Storck has been the Legal Information Specialist at the U.S. Attorneys Office, Denver. She was, previously, the reference/cataloging librarian at Foley and Lardner's Milwaukee, WI office, manager of the Godfrey and Kahn libraries in Wisconsin, and manager of the Stoel Rives libraries in Portland, OR. She received her Master of Library Science degree with a specialty in law librarianship about 16 years ago. Currently she serves on Library Advisory Group for U.S. Attorney Offices nationwide, and, co-authors a quarterly article for The Colorado Lawyer on legal research. She also edits a monthly e-newsletter sent to all U.S. Attorney office library staff and administrative officers and a weekly e-letter distributed to her local agency.

Ann-Marie Wills
Manager of Library Services
Otten, Johnson, Robinson, Neff & Ragonetti, P.C.

Ann-Marie Wills began working as a library page at the University of Kansas (KU), Watson Library, Lawrence, KS, when she was 16. She earned her B.A. in Anthropology from KU while continuing to work at the library. She became the supervisor of the Interlibrary Loan Dept. at Rice University Library, Houston, TX, then started a library for an oil and gas company in Houston. After moving to Colorado, she worked for a judge in the 18th Judicial District in Littleton, CO. This positive experience led to her earning a paralegal certificate from Arapahoe Community College, Littleton, CO. She is now at Otten, Johnson, Robinson, managing the firm's library. She likes library work, because the job is full of surprises and requires her to learn something new almost everyday.